

IOWA STATE UNIVERSITY
University Extension

Cover Crops Workshop

Thursday, March 10 ~ 9:30 AM-12:00 NOON

~ Lunch following the workshop ~

Clay County Regional Events Center

Clay County Fairgrounds ~ Spencer

The workshop is free and everyone is welcome. An RSVP is requested for a noon meal following the workshop. Please phone the Clay County Extension Office, 712/262-2264.

Featured Speakers:

- Tom Kaspar, National Laboratory for Agriculture and the Environment
- Mark Hanna, ISU agricultural and biosystems engineer
- John Sawyer, ISU agronomy professor

Learn about:

- Yield response of corn and soybeans following fall-seeded winter rye and other cereal grains
- Corn nitrogen fertilizer recommendations following winter rye
- Planter set-up for planting into cover crop residue
- Soil quality improvements related to cover crop use
- Fall seeding and spring-kill or grazing timing
- Potential for forage legumes and cover crop mixes in northern Iowa

For more information:

Iowa Learning Farms: 515/294-5429

www.extension.iastate.edu/ilf

Clay County Extension: 712/262-2264

